Prayer of the Church

Choral Offertory “To Give the Lord Our Thanks Is Good” Franz Joseph Haydn

To give the Lord our thanks is good;	On psaltery and lyre and harp,
To praise your Name, Most High, is right;	I glory in the works you wrought;
To tell your love at break of day,	You make me glad by all your acts.
And speak your faithfulness at night;	How great your works! How deep your thought!

The just shall flourish like a palm
 And like a cedar spread abroad.
 Those planted in the house of God
 Shall flourish there before the Lord.

Responsive Prayer 1 – LSB 282 (through Apostles' Creed)

Psalm 12

Antiphon: You, O Lord, will keep them; you will guard us from this generation forever.

Save, O Lord, for the godly | one is gone; *
for the faithful have vanished from among the chil- | dren of man.

Everyone utters lies to his | neighbor; *
with flattering lips and a double | heart they speak.

May the Lord cut off all | flattering lips, *
the tongue that | makes great boasts,

those who say, “With our tongue we | will prevail, *
our lips are with us; who is master | over us?”

“Because the poor are plundered, because the needy groan,
I will now arise,” | says the Lord; *

“I will place him in the safety for | which he longs.”

The words of the Lord are | pure words, *
like silver refined in a furnace on the ground, purified | seven times.

You, O Lord, will | keep them; *
you will guard us from this generation for- | ever.

On every side the | wicked prowls, *
as vileness is exalted among the chil- | dren of man.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son *
and to the Holy | Spirit;
as it was in the be- | ginning, *
is now, and will be forever. | Amen.
